QUESTION ONE (COMPULSORY)

Examine Kenya's foreign policy objectives, sources and guiding principles (30 marks)

QUESTION TWO

Kenya's foreign policy is anchored on five interlinked pillars that characterize her bilateral and multilateral engagement. These are economic diplomacy, peace diplomacy, diaspora diplomacy, environmental diplomacy, cultural diplomacy. Scrutinize these five pillars (20 marks).

QUESTION THREE

Using examples, explain how Kenya has been a key player in East Africa's regional political affairs (20 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

Over the past few years, Kenya has had many boundary problems with her neighbors, including a dispute with Uganda over the Island of Migingo, and a more recent maritime dispute with Somali. As Kenya's cabinet secretary for Foreign Affairs, explain how you would go about these foreign policy issues, and in the process, promote Kenya's foreign policy interests. (20 marks)
